

Helen Reaney's Bio

I have owned Staffords since 1989 but only starting showing in May 1994 but no longer breed or show for the last few year. Have lots of success within the breed attaining several CC's and RCC and two International Champions. My first judging appointment was in 1996 I was passed to award CC's in 2007. I have judged 10 times in the UK and judged all over the world, Australia and New Zealand, South Africa, France, Czech Republic, Norway, Sweden, Poland, USA, Spain and Russia. With Cork and Helsinki in 2024.

I joined my first committee in Feb 1996 and over the years have served on several Canine Societies and still do so and have a wealth of knowledge of Kennel Club procedures and how to run a show and Society as a whole. I am very admin minded. I do work 3 days a week for the Kennel Club in the Health & Breeder Services Department since 2011.
