The Club is looking for an Editor for the Year Book

This prestigious and important publication is an annual record of our beautiful breed - the Soft-Coated Wheaten Terrier.

The aim of the Year Book is to document all aspects of the breed through the year including the show scene, health and any thing else deemed important during the year.

Although no experience is necessary, excellent organisation and people skills are required. Also the enthusiasm to generate adverts from exhibitors. The Editor must ensure that all content and materials are completed on time to get the publication printed and ready for sale at Crufts.

The Editor will be given training, guidance and advice from the previous Editor plus support from the Committee and printers.
